TABLED DOCUMENT NO. 17

Wire for Deputy Commissioner, Government of the Northwest Territories, Yellowknife, N.W.T., July 5, 1968.

Further to phone conversation last night, the Inuvik Village Council does not favor election of new Council in 1968 for following reasons:

1. Continuity very important during present critical period of development, especially regarding water and sewer policy and public housing.
2. No provisions made for election in 1968.
3. Town status is seriously considered starting January 1, 1970. This would require election of complete new Council again in 1969.

If possible please convey the Village Council's wishes to the N.W.T. Council.

(Sgd.) B. DeKleine, Secretary-Treasurer, Village of Inuvik
