HOUSE OF COMMONS
CANADAOttawa,
April 24, 1969.PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

The Honourable Leo Cadieux, P.C., M.P.,
Minister of National Defence,
House of Commons,
Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Cadieux,

During Centennial Year (1970) in the Northwest Territories it is hoped that much of the excitement which occurred throughout Canada in 1967 can be repeated to a lesser degree in the Territories. The plan is to bring as many outside groups in the field of entertainment in the North as funds and resources provide.

Mr. Simonie Michael, Member of the Territorial Council for the Eastern Arctic spoke to me in Frobisher Bay a few days ago about the possibility that the Department of National Defence might sometime during the course of the Centennial year send to Frobisher Bay and possibly other parts of the Eastern Arctic one of the Canadian Forces Highland Pipe Bands. I am sure you will agree that the great music provided by these bands would be of special interest and excitement to the Eskimo people.

You will appreciate that at the moment I cannot give you dates and times but I would like to advance this suggestion so that this matter can be considered should the Centennial Corporation make such a request you will be in a position to sanction this request.

Yours sincerely,
