Dear Mr. Lewis:

I am writing to you today in support of your effort to save the Librarian position at the Prince of Wales Northern Heritage Centre Library.

The Northern Heritage Centre Library (officially called the Culture and Heritage Division Library) is one of Canada's foremost collections on the human history and traditional knowledge of northern Canada.

The Arctic Science and Technology Information System has dealt frequently with the Northern Heritage Centre Library, and I have a great deal of respect both for the usefulness of its collection and the capabilities of its Librarian.

It is impossible to expect a collection of this value and importance to be kept up-to-date and to be used effectively by clients without the services of a professional Librarian.

I hope you are successful in convincing a majority of MLAs to preserve the Librarian position at the Northern Heritage Centre Library.

Yours sincerely,

Ross Goodwin,
Manager, ASTIS
