Arctic Winter Games 1990

1 9 9 0 A R C T I C W I N T E R G A M E S

As Minister responsible for the Arctic Winter Games I would like to congratulate the Arctic Winter Games Corporation, the Yellowknife 1990 Arctic Winter Games Host Society and the many volunteers for the successful staging the best Arctic Winter Games ever.

The Government of the Northwest Territories was proud to be a major contributor along with the Government of Canada, the City of Yellowknife and the many other corporate sponsors who provided direct funding or in kind services.

It was two decades ago that the Arctic Winter Games were established with two major goals - to provide Northern athletes with the opportunity to participate and improve their skills against athletes of similar background and ability, and to foster friendship and understanding among Northern people through sport and cultural activities.

With the staging of the 1990 Arctic Winter Games we have reached a milestone in both sport and cultural participation. The numbers of athletes representing the various contingents has reached an all time high and the skill level has increased many fold since the first Games in 1970. Four new sports have been added to the Games which include Traditional Dene Games, Junior Dog Mushing, Junior Wrestling and Open Women's Hockey. The cultural component was extraordinary with performers attending from Northern Alberta, Yukon, Alaska, the Northwest Territories and from Greenland and the Soviet Union for the first time. This International festival provided an opportunity for the residents of the N.W.T. to share in a unique cultural extravaganza.

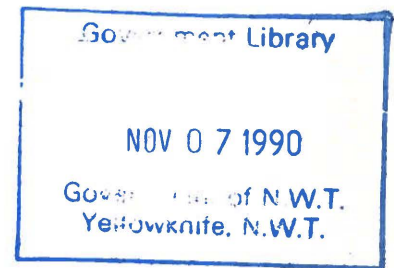

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate all athletes who participated in the Games, the fair play demonstrated and friendships gained will always be remembered. A special congratulations to those athletes from the Northwest Territories who won the Gold, Silver and Bronze Ulus. A heart felt thanks to the cultural performers for demonstrating and sharing their cultural heritage with the many spectators attending the Games.

I look forward to your continued participation as we prepare for next Arctic Winter Games to be held in Whitehorse, Yukon in 1992.

Honourable Gordon Wray
Minister of Municipal and Community Affairs

The Arctic Winter Games provides an opportunity every two years for athletes from across the north to participate in friendly competition. These Games are, for many athletes, the ultimate in competition.

The organization of such an event is not an easy undertaking. Many hours of dedicated training by athletes, coaches, managers and officials are responsible for the truly excellent performances.

Many hours of dedication by Regional Coordinators and organizers at Sport North are responsible for the overall operation of the Arctic Winter Games. The dedication by everyone involved in putting these Games together has not gone unnoticed.

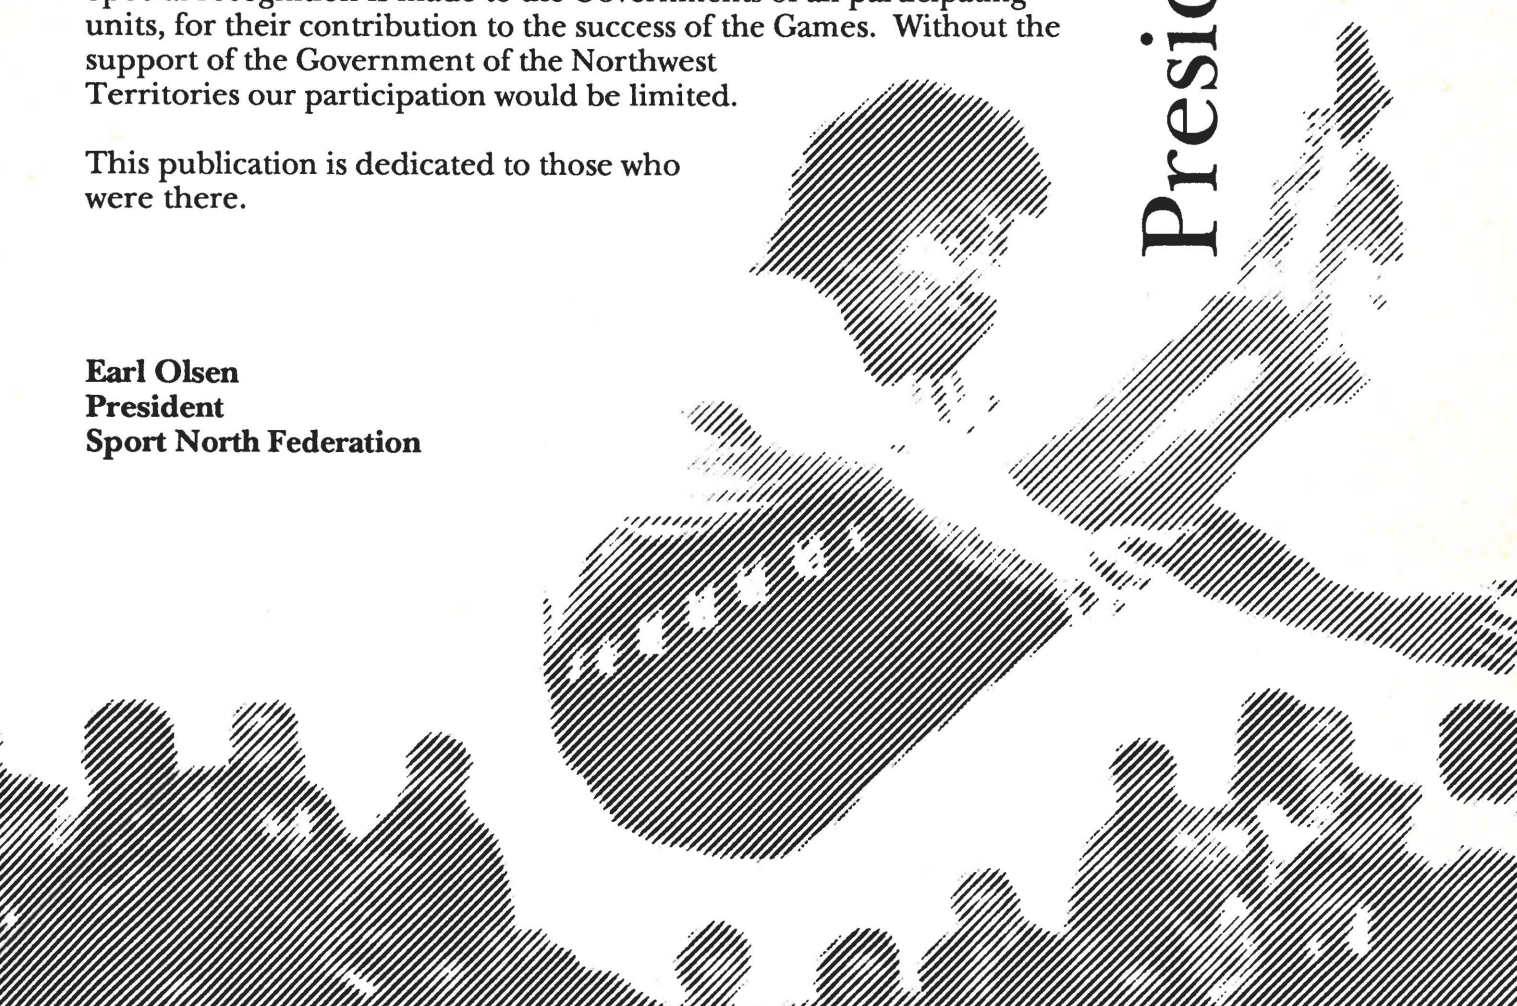

The rewards of participating in the Arctic Winter Games will be remembered for a long time. Ulus, won or lost, friends made, skills learned and practised and the general excitement of participating have made the 1990 Games worth remembering.

Special recognition is made to the Governments of all participating units, for their contribution to the success of the Games. Without the support of the Government of the Northwest Territories our participation would be limited.

This publication is dedicated to those who were there.

Earl Olsen

Games History

The Arctic Winter Games concept was conceived as a result of discussions among Government officials from Alaska, the Yukon and the Northwest Territories. The main objectives of the Games were to provide northern athletes with the opportunity to improve their skills against athletes of similar background and ability, and to foster friendship and understanding among all people of the Arctic through sport and cultural activities. In 1970 the first Arctic Winter Games were successfully staged in Yellowknife, involving athletes from Alaska, the Yukon and the Northwest Territories. Subsequent games were successfully staged in Whitehorse, Yukon in 1972; Anchorage, Alaska in 1974; Schefferville, Quebec in 1976; Hay River/Pine Point, N.W.T. in 1978; Whitehorse, Yukon in 1980; Fairbanks, Alaska in 1982; Yellowknife, N.W.T. in 1984; Whitehorse, Yukon in 1986; and Fairbanks, Alaska in 1988; The host for the 20th anniversary of the Games was Yellowknife, N.W.T. where more than 1500 individuals and businesses supported the Host Society to prepare for the 1300 athletes and cultural performers from the Northwest Territories, Yukon, Alaska, Northern Alberta, Greenland and the Soviet Union.

In 1992 the Arctic Winter Games will be held in Whitehorse, Yukon where Northern Athletes will again participate in the North's most prestigious sporting event in search of the gold, silver and bronze ulus, symbolic of Northern athletic achievement.

The coordination, selection and participation of the Arctic Winter Games Team is the responsibility of the Sport North Federation, their committees and the vast resource of volunteers from across the Northwest Territories. The Government of the Northwest Territories, with support and liaison by the Sport and Recreation Division of the Department of Municipal and Community Affairs, has delegated this responsibility to Sport North. To carry out this responsibility Sport North establishes an Arctic Winter Games Committee comprised of a Chairperson, three members and 7 regional coordinators representing the regions identified for the Games. The committee was responsible for finances, logistics, athletic attire, and administration of team selection. The regional coordinators were responsible for dissemination of information, registration of athletes, coordination of transportation for Regional and Territorial Trials as well as liaison with the N.W.T. Sport Organizations for the conduct of the Trials.

Over 2500 athletes from 51 communities participated in the Regional Trials, representing an increase of 3 communities over the 1988 Games while the athlete participation remained about the same. At the N.W.T. Trials 1366 athletes from 43 communities competed for the 323 positions to represent the N.W.T. at the Arctic Winter Games. At the Games in Yellowknife the Northwest Territories Team finished second overall, behind Team Alaska, with 117 Ulus: 36 Gold, 40 Silver and 41 Bronze.

Congratulations go out to all the athletes who represented the N.W.T. They demonstrated true sportsmanship and fair play and by their actions enhanced the basic principle of the Games of fostering friendship and understanding among Northern people through sport.

We hope this souvenir book will help you fondly remember the 1990 Arctic Winter Games.
