RESOLUTION NO 05/96

KIVALLIQ LEADERSHIP MEETING

CONCERNING NUNAVUT RESOURCE ACCORD.

Whereas: The finalization of a Northern Accord for the NWT appears to have been put on hold until land claims in the Western Arctic are settled; and

Whereas: Nunavut communities are in dire need of economic stimulus which would come from the finalization of a resource accord;

Therefore Be It Resolved that the GNWT negotiate a Nunavut Accord with the Government of Canada; and

Be It Further Resolved that the leadership in the Kitikmeot and Baffin regions be consulted for support on this resolution.

RESOLUTION No 07/96

KIVALLIQ LEADERSHIP MEETING

CONCERNING HOUSING ENTERING INTO FUTURE LONG TERM COMMITMENTS WHEN NEGOTIATING WITH HAMLET COUNCILS FOR TAKEOVER

Whereas: The Hamlets of Kivalliq have resolved to transfer Housing Operations within the region to municipal control by March 31, 1997; and

Whereas: The hamlets should be consulted prior to approval of any employment agreements or other long term agreements entered into which will affect operations past March 31, 1997 so that the effects on the eventual takeover are minimized;

Therefore Be It Resolved that the District Director of the NWT HC issue a directive to all Kivalliq LHO's to consult with their respective Hamlets prior to finalizing any employment or long term agreements of any nature.

CONCERNING ABILITY TO BORROW ON A LONG TERM BASIS

Whereas: The ability to borrow funds on a long term basis is necessary for the efficient and effective financing of long term capital needs of hamlets for purposes such as but not limited to land development and purchasing or leasing of capital assets; and

Whereas: The GNWT is currently drafting amendments to municipal legislation, including the Hamlets Act;

Therefore Be It Resolved that GNWT incorporate into its amendments to municipal legislation the ability of hamlets to borrow on a long term basis for real and personal property.

RESOLUTION No. 11/96

KIVALLIQ LEADERSHIP MEETING

CONCERNING RCMP IN SMALLER SETTLEMENTS

Whereas: The smaller communities of Kivalliq, namely Repulse Bay, Chesterfield Inlet and Whale Cove, do not have RCMP detachments; and

Whereas: Policing services in these communities tend to be reactive as opposed to proactive; and

Whereas: Leadership from the Kivalliq communities with larger detachments, namely Arviat, Baker Lake and Rankin Inlet feel that they have sufficient RCMP resources within their communities to be able to assist the smaller communities;

Therefore Be It Resolved that the RCMP be encouraged by the Kivalliq Leadership to review the possibility of having each of the larger detachments take responsibility for a specific community within the region that does not have a detachment

Be it further resolved that members of the RCMP be invited to the next Kivalliq Leadership meeting to discuss policing in Kivalliq.
