

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:

Name: Sheryl Yakelaya

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Deh Cho

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:  _____

Name: Julian Morse

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Frame Lake

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature: K. Reid

Name: Kate Reid

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Great Slave

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:

Name: RJ Simpson

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Hay River North

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:  _____

Name: VINCE MCKAY

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Hay River South

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:

Name: Denny Rodgers

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Inuvik Post Lake

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:

Name: Lesla Semmler

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Inuvik Twinlake

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:

Name: CARLTON CLEVELAND

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: nam lalen.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature: _____

Name: _____

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: _____

George Neupson
Mackenzie Delta

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature: _____

Name: _____

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: _____

Mosfi

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:  _____

Name: Shane Thompson

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Nahendah

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the Integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:  _____

Name: Luay Kupkane

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Nunakput

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:

Name: Kieron Testard

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Range Lake

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

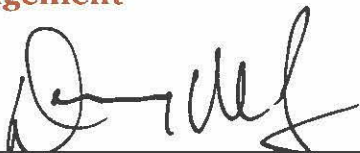

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:

Name: DANIE L M WREALY

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Sabtu

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature: _____

Name: _____

JAY MACDONALD

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: _____

THEBACHA

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:  _____

Name: Richard Edgericson

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Tu Nedhé - Wiilideh

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature: Robert Hawkins

Name: Robert Hawkins

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Yukon-White Centre

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature: Shauna Morgan

Name: Shauna Morgan

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: Yellowknife North

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Part 1: Statement of Commitment

1. As Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, we acknowledge that we have accepted a responsibility to serve the people of the Northwest Territories. We seek wisdom, strength, courage, honesty and compassion from the people of the North, both from those who have built our past and from those who are shaping our future. As legislators elected to govern the Northwest Territories, we will do our utmost to:
 - Hear the voices of all that live in the Northwest Territories;
 - Preserve Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, languages and the traditions of the various cultures and bridge them with new ways to build a better future for people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Provide legislation, policies and services for the good of the people as individuals, families and communities;
 - Promote the equality and equity of all people in the Northwest Territories;
 - Distribute resources fairly and justly; and
 - Respect and honour our land and all its inhabitants.

Part 2: Principles

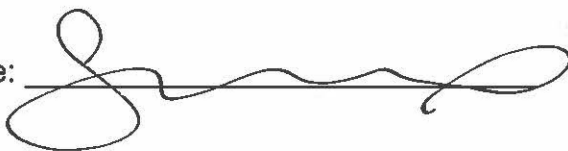

2. Members must act lawfully and in a manner that will withstand the closest public scrutiny, upholding the integrity and honour of the Legislative Assembly and its Members. Members shall ensure their conduct does not bring the integrity of their office or of the Legislative Assembly into disrepute.
3. Members must treat members of the public, one another and staff appropriately and without harassment. Members must take all reasonable steps to ensure their work environment is free from harassment.
4. Members must carry out their official duties objectively and without consideration of personal or financial interests, and must arrange their personal affairs so as to maintain the trust and confidence of the public.

5. In performing their official duties, Members must use public resources prudently and only for the purposes for which they are intended. Members of the Assembly shall not use, or allow the use of, public property or services for personal gain.
6. Members must give priority to their duties as a Member over all other duties and offices they hold and must dedicate themselves to fulfilling their duty to effectively represent residents of the Northwest Territories.
7. Members must take appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of any personal information, personal health information, or other confidential information that comes into their possession.
8. This Code is not designed to be exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which Members will find it necessary to adopt more stringent standards of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance public confidence and trust.

Part 3: Effect of the Code of Conduct

9. This Code of Conduct has a continuing effect except as amended or rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Acknowledgement

Signature:

Name: Caroline Wawzonek

Member of the Legislative Assembly for: YK South