INTERGOVERNMENTAL AGREEMENT

On

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES COOPERATION AND COORDINATION

April 2015

Inuvialuit Regional Corporation (IRC)
and
Government of the Northwest Territories
(GNWT)
Intergovernmental Agreement
on
Programs and Services Cooperation and Coordination

PREAMBLE

Whereas the Parties are committed to building and maintaining a mutually respectful government to government relationship;

And Whereas the Parties acknowledge that cooperation and coordination among political leadership and senior officials is key to fulfilling the potential of the government to government relationship;

And Whereas the Parties wish to build on their relationship and have agreed to work together in a manner consistent with the October 2, 1999 Inuvialuit and Gwich'in Political Accord;

And Whereas the GNWT recognizes that the Inuvialuit are an Aboriginal people of Canada and that the inherent right of self-government is an existing Aboriginal right under Section 35(1) of the Constitution Act, 1982;

And Whereas the Inuvialuit and the GNWT are committed to achieving an Inuvialuit Self-government agreement by way of good faith negotiations;

And Whereas, the parties recognize cooperative arrangements related to programs and services can build capacity in preparation for self-government.

Now therefore, the Parties agree as follows:

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Intergovernmental Agreement is to confirm commitments between the GNWT and IRC to develop cooperative measures and agreements to jointly focus on improving programs and services in the Inuvialuit Settlement Region and Inuvialuit communities.

Appendix 1 to this Agreement lists specific projects identified through the Beaufort Delta Agenda as an example of areas of potential cooperation and collaboration.

PRIORITY TOPICS FOR CONSIDERATION

The priority topic for further consideration and discussion include:

- health and social services,
- culture and language,
- education,
- income support,
- services for elders,
- housing,
- economic development,
- employment, skill development, capacity building and job training,
- policing and justice; and
- any other areas of mutual interest identified by the IRC and the GNWT

The GNWT and IRC will jointly identify specific projects related to programs and services for which they will endeavour to achieve intergovernmental arrangements, as soon as practicable after signing this agreement.

Where the Parties agree to undertake joint investments in programs or services the Parties will enter into a separate agreement(s) or arrangement(s) setting out their respective commitments, including funding or other resources.

GOVERNMENT TO GOVERNMENT MEETINGS

Meetings of Elected Leaders

Regular meetings of elected leaders will build and maintain a government to government relationship between the IRC and the GNWT.

- There shall be at least one meeting a year between the IRC Board of Directors and all Members of the GNWT Executive Council.
- Efforts will be made to schedule meetings to ensure that dialogue takes place prior to the Operating and Maintenance and Capital Planning processes.
- Meetings will be co-chaired by the Premier of the Northwest Territories and the Chair of the IRC.
- Each government may invite other elected officials, senior staff and other advisors, such as Elders, to attend these meetings. Only the IRC Board of Directors and Members of the GNWT Executive Council will sit at the table.
- Prior to these meetings, the governments shall reach agreement on a joint agenda.

- At the conclusion of these meetings, or as soon as is practical after these meetings, the governments will agree upon a joint summary of outcomes and commitments.

Meetings of Officials

Meetings between senior officials will support the government to government work of elected leaders.

- Each government will designate a lead official responsible for coordinating preparation and follow-up of the meetings of elected leaders.
- Officials shall meet in order to assist in the scheduling of, and preparation for, meetings of elected leaders, including developing a joint agenda and shared briefing materials.
- Officials shall work together with the objective of improving intergovernmental relations and assisting with the identification of potential joint projects and intergovernmental arrangements.
- At the conclusion of these meeting of elected officials, or as soon as is practical after these meetings, officials will assist in the development of the summary of outcomes and commitments and will develop a work plan in support of the meetings to ensure that meeting outcomes are fulfilled where applicable.

Annual Reporting

Lead officials will prepare an annual report to be provided to the Parties describing the status of any cooperative measures or agreements identified to improve programs and services in the Inuvialuit Settlement Region.

INFORMATION SHARING

The IRC and GNWT recognize that in order to effectively make progress in areas of mutual interest it is important that information be shared in an open and timely manner.

In order to facilitate achieving effective progress on areas of mutual interest, the IRC and GNWT will adhere to the following protocols for effective communication between governments:

- Each government will notify the other of upcoming activities, regional visits, emergent issues of concern, and upcoming consultations.

For example, the GNWT should advise the IRC when Ministers and/or MLAs are intending to visit Inuvialuit communities.

Protocols for formal correspondence include:

- GNWT formal correspondence addressed to the Chair and Chief Executive Officer should be copied to IRC Director of Intergovernmental Relations, the Premier of the Northwest Territories and the Deputy Minister of Aboriginal Affairs and Intergovernmental Relations;
- IRC formal correspondence addressed to the Premier of the Northwest Territories should be copied to the Deputy Minister of Aboriginal Affairs and Intergovernmental Relations; and
- IRC formal correspondence addressed to Ministers of the GNWT should be copied to the Premier of the Northwest Territories and the Deputy Minister of Aboriginal Affairs and Intergovernmental Relations.

COSTS

All costs associated with the activities highlighted within this agreement are the individual responsibility of the participating government.

EFFECT OF THE AGREEMENT

Nothing in this agreement creates legal obligations.

Nothing in this agreement shall constrain the respective governments from exercising their powers and responsibilities.

Nothing in this agreement prevents the Parties from participating in other intergovernmental processes or agreements.

TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT

This agreement shall be in effect for a period of four years from the date of signing and may be periodically reviewed and may be renewed for further terms as agreed to by both governments.

This agreement may be terminated by either government upon written notice to the other government at least 60 days in advance of the termination date. If this Intergovernmental Agreement is terminated, it will not affect any other agreements or understandings then in place between the Parties.
